PRIVACY POLICY

1. Summary

The Diocese of Sodor and Man use personal information to carry out their many functions supporting the mission and ministry of the Church of England. Legislation requires, and sometimes empowers, the Diocese of Sodor and Man to provide goods and services to the wider church.

The Diocese of Sodor and Man therefore collects a wide range of personal data required for, or incidental to, the discharge of its functions, involving employees, clergy, lay workers, pensions, housing, public consultations, recruitment and appointment, parliamentary functions etc. The Diocese of Sodor and Man will endeavour to ensure that they use personal information in line with the expectations and interests of those with whom they come into contact, including their employees, office holders and customers, for the benefit of the church and wider society and in compliance with data protection legislation.

This policy provides guidance on the provision of information to data subjects about how their personal data is processed, in order to meet the requirements for transparency in the data protection legislation. The Diocese of Sodor and Man are committed to being open and transparent about the collection, use, sharing, storage, archiving and disposal of personal data, and will provide all necessary and relevant information about these activities to data subjects. Transparency will engender trust and will support effective business operations and minimise the risk of harm to individuals.

Adherence to this policy, in relation to Diocesan work, is mandatory for all Diocese of Sodor and Man employees, clergy, office holders, lay workers, contractors, agency workers, consultants and volunteers who use personal data held by the Diocese of Sodor and Man.

2. Introduction

2.1 The Diocese of Sodor and Man, as data controllers of personal data, are under an obligation of transparency concerning the processing of such data, under data protection legislation. Such transparency concerns specifically, the provision of information to data subjects about how their data is being processed, and facilitating individuals to access and understand this information. The Diocese of Sodor and Man are committed to engendering trust in the processes we undertake with regard to personal data, by enabling data subjects to understand, and if necessary, to challenge these processes, and to empower data subjects to hold us to account and to exercise their control over their personal data.

2.2 The Diocese of Sodor and Man will comply with applicable legislation, including:

- The IOM General Data Protection Regulations and Law Enforcement Directive Implementing Regulations 2018
- The UK General Data Protection Regulation 2016
- The UK Data Protection Act 2018
- and other regulatory requirements and applicable guidance.

3. Purpose

- 3.1 The primary purpose of this policy is to set out the relevant legislation and to describe the steps that the Diocese of Sodor and Man are taking to comply. It is our policy to ensure that our compliance with the relevant legislation is clear and demonstrable at all times.
- 3.2 In addition, this policy is intended to establish best practice in relation to the information provided to data subjects, how and when the information is communicated, and the key principles underpinning these actions and activities.

4. Definitions

Personal Data - Any information that relates to an identifiable living individual.
